CARROLL.

At the close of a revival at the First M. E. church in Carrollton Sunday 37 converts were baptized and received into the church.

Eli Bascom, who was accidentally shot by Jesse Wagner, near Norborne, last week, died of his injuries. The deceased was 61 years old.

The Carroll county merchants are a wide-awake lot we surmise from the cheery and inviting ads they give to the papers of their respective towns.

Meadville has a minister by the name of Dayhoff, but he belies his name, for he is always to the front when it comes to saving souls. He is now assisting in a protracted-meeting at Tina.

"Doc" Leopard of near Bogard is suffering from a broken leg and other injuries received from a runaway team last week. It took three doctors to put him together after the accident.

S. A. Clark of the Carrollton Republican-Record, foreseeing the bitter cold weather of last week, left for the sunny south and remained away. He took in San Antonio, Houston, Galveston and other Texas points.

The Bogard correspondent to the Carrollton Republican-Record says the Burlington road is not able to supply stock cars for the shippers at that point and some there had to drive their cattle to Carrollton to ship over other roads.

Shirey Bros. of Carrollton have brought suit against the Wabash road. The charge is they lost considerable money by the delay of a shipment of a car of mules from Trenton to Carrollton. The suit will be tried in January.

The water and light plant at Carrollton has just purchased a new 70-horse power Corlies engine, a new generator and a pump. The increasing business demanded the purchase. Would that we could substitute the town of Keytesville in the place of Carrollton.

The dead body of a newly born negro baby was found last Thursday afternoon on the Wabash track two miles east of Norborne by the section men. Coroner Sibert was notified and diligent inquiry was made to locate the mother, but of no avail. The theory arrived at was that the babe was born on No. 2, which passes through Norborne about noon, and was thrown from the train window by the inhuman mother. Charles Church, the conductor on the train, was wired by the superintendent in the following message: "What about the negro baby born on your train?" To which Church promptly replied: "I stand on my constitutional rights." So far the mother's identity has not been discovered and the coroner had the infant buried Saturday.

MARRIAGES.

Fredlen Sprout and Miss Della Saunders, both of Miami.

Frank Moore and Miss Bertie Burton, both of Norborne.

C. L. Huff and Miss Lula M. Lee, both of Carroll county.

Henry Harke of Dalton and Miss Annie Adkins of Wakenda.

Will H. Forsythe, Jr., and Miss Jessie Todd, both of Tina.

C. S. Burton of Wellington, Kas., and Miss Maud Lovell, of Norborne.

Miles Templeman of Indian Territory and Miss Maud Hawkins of Trotter township.

HOWARD.

Mrs. J. M. Miller of the Tickridge neighborhood departed this life Monday.

Dr. V. Q. Bonham of New Franklin has been elected president of the Howard County Medical society for the ensuing year.

The Howard County Advertiser has not received all its new dress yet, and modestly forbids that it appear in public until its toilet is complete.

Mrs. J. Y. Miller, aged 47 years, of near Steinmetz died Sunday of brain fever caused by a rising in her ear. She leaves a husband and seven children.

Mrs. John Biven of two miles east of Boonsboro had her residence consumed by fire at 12:30 o'clock a. m. Sunday. Only a portion of the household goods was saved.

M. A. Boyd of Fayette is dead. He was 61 years old, and is survived by a wife and one daughter. Deceased was a native of Virginia and an ex-confederate soldier.

M. M. Bayse passed away at the home of his son-in-law, Bob Fisher of Myers Monday at the age of 71 years. Mr. Bayse was veteran of the Mexican war. He was married twice, but both of his wives are dead.

A disastrous fire was narrowly averted in the Glasgow Mercantile Co.'s store at Glasgow Saturday morning. A lot of blankets became ignited in some unknown manner in the southwest portion of the building, but prompt action prevented a spread of the flames. But little damage was done.

Park Long of near Cherr Grove suffered the loss of his country residence and most of its contents by fire about midnight Saturday. Miss Gladys Long came near suffocating from smoke before she was gotten out of her room. The fire was caused by a defective flue. The dwelling was insured for $800 and the contents for $350, while the loss is placed at $3,000.

Central college at Fayette is going to build a $10,000 gymnasium. A saw, sawbuck and a pile of wood would afford an opportunity for just as much healthful exercise, and would be much more profitable and not cost near so much money. But then it is so difficult for mankind "to say nothing and saw wood" in this advanced age of noise, bustle and "physical culture."

George Brannum, the farmer who shot and severely wounded Burke Gaines at Fayette about a month ago and has since been in the county jail, gave bond Monday in the sum of $10,000 with Geo. D. Brannum, J. R. Hughes, R. H. Walden, W. A. Besgrove, T. G. Miller, A. P. Hickerson, C. B. Jones, T. B. George, W. Embree and Robt Powell as securities.

The residence of L. H. Ruffel of Glasgow was entered by two strange men Wednesday night, who were in the act of rifling the sideboard, but a noise made by Steve Ruffel, disturbed the freebooters and they took to their heels. Marshal Gannon was called and he and Otis Joseph reached the Ruffel home in time to see the two men pass out at the yard gate. Five or six shots were fired by Gannon and Joseph at the intruders, but the shots all went wild.

MARRIAGES.

Fred Waugh and Miss Rosa R. Miller, both of Fayette.

Irl Snyder of near Mt. Airy and Miss Stella Lee of near Armstrong.

LINN.

Mrs. Owen Sartam of Pleasant Grove is dead.

Mrs. Lewis Thieme, Jr., of Brookfield was numbered with the dead Friday.

J. A. Pormalie of five miles northeast of Brookfield died Monday at the age of 86.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen at Marceline will give a grand New Year's ball.

Mrs. John Corey of four miles north of Brookfield departed this life Sunday at the ripe age of 87.

Miss Ollie Robertson of Laclede was called to the great beyond Friday night in her 19th year.

Notwithstanding Browning has no saloon, plain drunks in that town are frequently in evidence. Drugstore whiskey seems to have the same effect as any other kind.

According to the new ordinance passed by the city council of Laclede nothing but flagstone, concrete or brick sidewalks will be permitted to pass muster in that town in the future.

The night marshal at Marceline was lectured by the city council for looking upon the wine when it was red. He was reinstated upon a promise to remain sober in the future.

W. T. Kimber of Brookfield is the new superintendent of the Linn county infirmary, more commonly called the poorhouse, Mr. Kimber having been appointed at the recent sitting of the county court.

The Brookfield Gazette is offering a fountain pen as a premium to subscribers just as though the readers of that excellent paper don't already get the worth of their money and then some.

Mr. and Mrs. John Myrick of near Purdin lost a child a few days ago from the effect of drinking concentrated lye. The little one did not know any better, but it does seem that its parents should have been cautious enough to put the lye where the child couldn't get it.

The Linn County News makes the charge of prejudice against the Chariton county jury that gave Sam B. Cook a verdict for $150,000 against the St. Louis Globe-Democrat for libel. This is quite natural for a little Republican toady like the editor of the News, who is also postmaster at Linneus, but he should have had enough gumption and enough manhood in expressing his sentiment to get up something original on the subject and not have boldly stolen an article from the Macon Republican.

MARRIAGES.

Frank Fletcher and Miss Nora Maggard, both of Brookfield.

Hiram Bracken and Miss Mary Tarnow, both of Brookfield.

Curtis Minich and Miss Alice Gruwelle, both of Marceline.

Chas. Mettler and Miss Minnie Maggard, both of Brookfield.

Chas. H. Bosley and Miss Emma V. Climie, both of Laclede.

Edward Franklin and Miss Nora Donlinson, both of Brookfield.

H. G. Burnham and Miss Elizabeth Marie Thudium, both of Brookfield.

A Cream of Tartar Powder Made From Grapes No Alum

LIVINGSTON.

The Tribune says: "If there were more babies in Chillicothe homes there would be less pink teas."

In the Willard school district the young ladies are expert corn-huskers. Wonder if they ever find a red ear?

Roy Higgins of near Chillicothe is holding the husking belt, having husked 110 bushels of corn in even nine hours.

Dr. W. A. Swope of Wheeling was painfully injured last week by his team running away and the buggy overturning on him.

The Jews of Chillicothe have started a relief fund for the suffering Russian Jews and about $200 was raised Sunday night.

Shale beds have been found at Utica and experts pronounce the shale as fine as any known. The erection of a plant is contemplated.

George Manning, a Livingston county farmer, has sued the Burlington railroad for $20,000 damages. He was badly hurt on an excursion train, near Brush, Colo., September 5.

Robert Ferguson, a farmer, 51 years old, living near Utica, was terribly hurt by a horse kicking him Saturday. In describing his injuries the Chillicothe Tribune says: The lower jawbone was broken on either side of the chin, leaving the middle of the chin hanging loose. The same bone was broken near the right ear and on the left side of the head it was dislocated. A long gash on the chin, extending almost into the mouth, was also cut. The upper jawbone was broken from the corners of the mouth and extended almost to the base of his nose, loosening the whole roof of his mouth. Besides these injuries several of his teeth were kicked out. What would probably be a better way of describing the man's injuries would be to say that almost the whole of his face was fractured. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital at St. Joseph and at last reports was getting along as well as a man could in his condition and with chances for his recovery.

MARRIAGES.

Harvey Hilt and Miss Lula Baker, both of Hale.

Thos. Robinson of Monroe township and Miss Sadie Hayes of Ludlow.

George Musson of Chillicothe and Miss Minnie Andre of New Sharon, Ia.

MACON.

The Macon Times-Democrat issued a handsome 28-page Christmas edition last week.

Mrs. Gwendolin John of Beaver breathed her last Monday morning at the age of 73 years.

John W. Lynch of Moberly has been awarded the contract for paving Jackson street in Macon.

Capt. C. R. Haverly, a member of the Macon city council, died at an early hour Friday morning.

Tip Farmer of near Atlanta died Tuesday afternoon at the age of 70 years. A wife and several children survive him.

The trial of Allen Teeter for the attempted murder of Dollie Cox has been set for trial in the Macon circuit court Wednesday, January 3.

The real estate, loan and abstract firm of Hicks, Yutz & Co. of Macon has been dissolved, John G. Yutz having sold his interest in the business to John W. Northcott of Linneus.

Mrs. P. A. Lundgren of New Cambria died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. M. Eberhard of Clarence, Friday morning in her 71st year. She leaves a husband and three daughters to mourn her death. Deceased was a native of Sweden.

Congressman J. T. Lloyd of the First congressional district introduced a bill in congress Wednesday providing for an appropriation of $60,000 by the government to be expended for the erection of a public building at Macon.

MARRIAGES.

Jas. E. Wilder and Miss Sadie Gard, both of Macon.

Andrew Love and Miss Alta Myers, both of Gifford.

Claude Barnes and Miss Ola Stamper, both of Ten Mile.

Hugh Vandoren and Miss Myrtle Calhoun, both of Walnut.

E. F. Triester of Macon and Miss Elenora Soebbing of Quincy, Ills.

Harvey Coleman of Clarence and Miss Orpha E. Cook of Anabel.

E. W. Shouse and Miss Virginia Hazelwood, both of La Plata.

Joseph Lottie of Centralia, Ills., and Miss Sannie Smith of Atlanta.

J. F. Fowler and Miss Dottie Yates, both of Bozeman, Mont. The bridegroom formerly lived at Macon.

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. Rebecca Dix, aged 66 years, died at the home of her son in Moberly Monday. She leaves six children.

T. W. Shearman died Friday at the home of his daughter, Miss Kate Shearman of Moberly. Deceased was 70 years old and leaves three children to mourn his death.

Barney, the faithful and valuable family horse of Dr. L. A. Lowry of Clifton Hill, fell into a newly dug well on the home place Thursday, and it was several hours before he could be rescued from his perilous condition. The well contained no water, but when the animal was finally lifted from the well he seemed to be more dead than alive.

A foot-race took place at Huntsville Monday between Rich R. Correll, the editor of the Clark Chronicle, and Chas. M. McDonald of that place, who was thought by almost every one in that city to be the champion runner of Randolph county, but he was easily beaten by the Chronicle man in 10 seconds and almost by 15 feet in a distance of 100 yards.

A little boy, aged about 8 years, and sent by the Christian Orphans' home of St. Louis to Mr. Westtalk of Moberly, arrived in that city Wednesday afternoon, but his foster parents were not there to meet him. Rev. A. M. Buchanan was at the station, and knowing Mr. Westtalk, who teaches school at Mt. Hope, took the child home with him and will keep him until Mr. Westtalk can call for the lad.

MARRIAGES.

Loy Wilson and Miss Molla Austin, both of Cairo.

H. Richardson and Miss Anna Crutchfield, both of Ft. Henry.

W. I. Westalk of Ft. Henry and Miss Scottie Knox of Clifton Hill.

Willie Johnson and Miss Leta Humphrey, both of Jacksonville.

T. E. Roberston and Miss Frances Crutchfield, both of Huntsville.

SALINE.

Eld. E. G. Merrill is conducting a series of meetings at the Christian church in Miami.

Dr. A. A. Wheeler of Miami fell in a faint in the butcher-shop a few days ago and fractured a rib.

Eld. T. J. Thompson has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Christian church at Slater to take effect January 1.

John Robertson, who formerly clerked in Sigloch's drugstore in Keytesville, now has consumption at his home in Miami.

Jesse Horner, a pioneer citizen of New Frankfort, died Friday day morning at the advanced age of 84. His wife preceded him to the other world only a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Dr. Geo. Duggins of Pueblo, Colo., has crossed the dark river. She used to live in Miami and Marshall, and her maiden name was Miss Kate Kirby of Carrollton.

G. W. Newton, who was at one time principal of the Keytesville public school, but who is now a real estate man at Marshall, has just completed an elegant new home with all the modern improvements.

Jas. Giles, col., pleaded guilty Thursday before Justice Chas. M. Hawley of Marshall to the crime of petit larceny, and was fined $100 and costs. Not being able to liquidate, the justice remitted the fine and costs to a jail sentence of 30 days.

Miss Lou Caldwell has resigned as a teacher in the Slater high school. When a young lady quits teaching on her motion we all imagine we can hear the jingle of wedding bells not far distant.

Mrs. M. V. Chamberlain of Salt Springs, who has been spending the winter with her daughter in Lodi, Cal., is dead. Her remains were shipped to her former home for interment. She was 69 years old and was the widow of the late S. D. Chamberlain.

While engaged in a crap game at the rear of a saloon in Marshall Saturday a negro by the name of Lefe Scott and a white man who answers to the cognomen of Lester Aulgur got into a quarrel, and Aulgur severely slashed Scott on the left side and shoulder with a knife. Aulgur, his brother and Scott were all arrested.

MARRIAGES.

Arthur Burton and Miss Zula Alma Davis, both of Marshall.

Geo. G. Ehrnman and Miss Sallie Payne, both of Marshall. Wm. H. Ehrnman and Miss Carrie Phillips, both of Marshall.

William F. Patterson and Miss Nannie Lee Hunter, both of Marshall.

Harper Moss of Maryville and Miss Prudence Arrine of near Slater.

Frank O. Dilley of DeWitt and Miss Margaret Irwin of near Miami.

★ Thanksgiving Day ★

Comes every day to those who have loans with us. The main trouble that comes to a man who borrows money comes from the fear that he will in some way lose something. We pride ourselves that we place our loans so the borrower is protected; and therefore resting free from any fear of trouble. Our borrowers have a perpetual
